DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on December 3, 2007 has been entered.

Claim Objections

Claims 38 and 47 are objected to because of the following informalities.

In claim 38, line 18: "the (second occurrence)" should be deleted to correct a minor typographical error.

In claim 47: "adpated" should be "adapted" to correct a minor typographical error.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1-2, 4-7, 38-39, 41 and 42 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Lemke et al. (US 5,255,485).

Lemke et al. disclose an adjustable tool including: a shaft (122, 116) with calibration markings (132, 134); a cutting portion 130, i.e. a portion capable of cutting into material; a fastener engaging portion 102; an adjustment portion 116; and an adjustment mechanism including a first sleeve 105 and a second sleeve 112 mounted on the shaft wherein the cutting portion and the fastener engaging portion can be rotated at different speeds with respect to one another (Figs. 4 and 5, col. 6, lines 47-68, col. 7 and col. 8, lines 1-2). See marked up Fig. 5 from Lemke et al. below.

It is noted that a claim containing a “recitation with respect to the manner in which a claimed apparatus is intended to be employed does not differentiate the claimed apparatus from a prior art apparatus" if the prior art apparatus teaches all the structural limitations of the claim. Ex parte Masham, 2 USPQ2d 1647 (Bd. Pat. App. & Inter. 1987).

Response to Arguments

Applicant's arguments filed on December 3, 2007 have been fully considered but are not persuasive for the following reasons.

Claims 1 and 38 recite a "shaft comprising an adjustment portion that is externally threaded." It is the Examiner's position that Applicants' claimed invention is anticipated by Lemke et al. since the claim does not require the adjustment portion to be monolithically formed with the shaft. Lemke et al. clearly show a shaft 122 having an adjustment portion 116.

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 8-11, 43 and 45-46 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Claim 47 would be allowable if a minor typographical error is corrected.
